

Evangelization: How Could We Do That?

A Practical Training for Parish Pastoral Councils

Three Goals of the Day

- to learn ways to invite people to believe in Jesus Christ as Catholics
- to share ways to invite people to become active again in the Catholic faith,
- to equip Catholics with the tools to further this invitation.

Date: Saturday, November 10, 2012
Time: 9:00 AM–3:00 PM
Place: Diocese of Belleville Pastoral Center Building #6
2620 Lebanon Ave. Belleville, IL
Presenter: Reverend Frank DeSiano, CSP

Fr. Frank is a Paulist priest with many years of priestly ministry and experience in evangelization. He has formed numerous evangelization teams, developed particular strategies of evangelization for different parishes, served as a Consultor to the US Bishops Committee on Evangelization, and worked as a writer in the development of "Go and Make Disciples, A Plan and Strategy for Evangelization in the United States." (1992). He has authored or co-authored numerous books (<http://www.pemdc.org>) and also conducts parish renewals (missions) and presents at many conferences for dioceses, parishes and organizations. He is passionately involved in developing material to help attract people to the Catholic faith.
